7. Since CIA appears to be heading toward releasing itself of all obligations undertaken under NSC 165 and NSC Action 1910, the Chairman posed the question of the advisability of terminating the activities of IOTAC which was established to deal with the interests of diverse elements of the Agency in regard to these obligations. A discussion followed after which the Chairman requested members to re-study the IOTAC charter and report back to the Secretary the views and wishes of their organizations on the future of IOTAC.
